REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION OF PETITION UNDER 37 CFR 1.47(a)

December 15, 2003

TO THE COMMISSIONER FOR PATENTS:

In response to the Decision Refusing Status Under 37 CFR 1.47(a), Petitioner submits the following: Statement of Facts; Declaration of Kelly J. Pedersen with declaration of facts; Exhibits 1-8; Supplemental First Reissue Application Declaration by the Inventors which includes the missing inventor's, Mr. Yih-Shung Lin's, citizenship and executed by his co-inventor; and, a Request for Extension of Time for two months.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

1) On July 22, 2003, Mr. Santarelli filed with the USPTO a Petition for Application Submitted Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.47(a) Where Joint Inventor Mr. Yih-Shung Lin Cannot Be Located After A Diligent Effort To Locate Him.

2) In a Decision Refusing Status Under 37 C.F.R. § 1.47(a) mailed August 13, 2003, the USPTO dismissed the Petition in paragraph (2), in part because of failure to establish that Mr. Lin cannot be located due to lack of diligence.

3) After receiving the Decision Refusing Status in paragraph (3), Mr. Santarelli instructed his assistant, Kelly J. Pedersen, to make a diligent effort to locate Mr. Lin. Therefore, Ms. Pedersen's actions listed below are in furtherance of those taken by Ms. Mary L. Hiner as outlined in her Declaration included with the previously filed Petition in paragraph (2).

4) Mr. Yih-Shung Lin left ST before February 20, 2002.

5) Before February 20, 2002, the last-known residential address, place of employment, and cell-phone number that ST had for Mr. Yih-Shung Lin were as follows: #02-04, Horizon Tower East, 15 Leoni Hill Road, Singapore 0923; Tencor (located in Taiwan); and, 65-9677-7138. ST, however, did not have a mailing address for Tencor. ST then acquired the following email address and second cell-phone number for Mr. Lin: yih.shung.lin@kla-tencor.com, 886-911-238-648.

6) On November 4, 2003, Ms. Pedersen sent an email (Exhibit 1) to Mr. Lin at yih.shung.lin@kla-tencor.com.

7) On November 4, 2003, Ms. Pedersen received an email (Exhibit 2) stating that the email address in paragraph (7) was not recognized.

8) On November 13, 2003, Ms. Pedersen phoned 011 886-911-238-648 twice. Both times she got dead air. No dial tone, no ring, nothing.

9) On November 13, 2003, Ms. Pedersen phoned 011 65-9677-7138 twice. Both times she got the following message: "customer not available, try again later." Also, the phone service did not provide her an option to leave a voice message, so she was unable to leave a message.

10) On November 13, 2003, Ms. Pedersen searched the Singapore phone directory via the internet (Exhibit 3). There is no listing for a Yih-Shung Lin.

11) On November 13, 2003, Ms. Pedersen prepared and sent a package to Mr. Lin at his last known address, #02-04, Horizon Tower East, 15 Leoni Hill Road, Singapore 0923, via Airborne Express. (Exhibit 4) The package contained a copy of the reissue application and a reissue declaration for Mr. Lin's signature.

12) On November 13, 2003, Ms. Pedersen also prepared and sent a package to Mr. Alex Kalnitsky, Mr. Lin's coinventor. The package contained a copy of the reissue application, a reissue declaration for Mr. Kalnitsky's signature, and a letter (Exhibit 5) stating in part that we were unable to locate Mr. Lin. Mr. Kalnitsky subsequently signed and returned the reissue declaration, but did not provide us any information as to Mr. Lin's whereabouts.

13) On December 02, 2003, Ms. Pedersen phoned 011 65-9677-7138 again. She got the same message as in paragraph (10): "customer not available, try again later." Also, the phone service did not provide her an option to leave a voice message, so she was unable to leave a message.

14) On December 03, 2003, Ms. Pedersen phoned 011 65-9677-7138 again. I got the same message as in paragraphs (10) and (13): "customer not available, try again later." Also, the phone service did not provide me an option to leave a voice message, so she was unable to leave a message.

15) On or around December 05, 2003, Ms. Pedersen received a call from Airborne Express. The caller stated that the package in paragraph (12) was undeliverable because Mr. Lin no longer lived at #02-04, Horizon Tower East, 15 Leoni Hill Road, Singapore 0923. The caller further stated that someone at this address told the Airborne delivery person to "send the package to Europe." The caller said that she could not provide or obtain any additional information, such as the "someone's" name or contact information, Mr. Lin's whereabouts, or where in Europe to deliver the package.

16) On December 12, 2003, Airborne Express returned the undelivered, unopened package (Exhibit 6) in paragraph (12) to Ms. Pedersen per paragraph (16).

17) On or about December 15, 2003, Ms. Pedersen searched the Taiwan phone directory via the internet. There was no listing for Mr. Lin's last known employer, Tencor (Exhibit 7).

18) On December 15, 2003, Ms. Pedersen searched the telephone books of the major industrial countries in Europe (France, Germany, Italy, and the United Kingdom, (Exhibit 8)) via the internet, but found no listing for Yih-Shung Lin.

19) Neither Mr. Lin nor anyone else ever returned Ms. Pedersen's calls in paragraphs (9), (10), (14), and (15).

20) We do not know Mr. Lin's whereabouts or how to contact him.

21) The required Petition fee of $130.00 was enclosed with our original submission. However, should further payment be required to cover such fees, or excess payment is enclosed, you are hereby authorized to charge such payment or credit such overpayment to Deposit Account No. 07-1897.

DATED this 15th day of December, 2003.

DECLARATION OF KELLY J. PEDERSEN

December 15, 2003

TO THE COMMISSIONER FOR PATENTS:

1) I am a patent assistant to Mr. Bryan Santarelli, a patent attorney at Graybeal Jackson Haley LLP, a patent firm in Seattle, WA. I have held this position since before November 04, 2003. Mr. Santarelli is an outside patent counsel for STMicroelectronics, Inc., (ST) of Carrollton, TX.

2) On July 22, 2003, Mr. Santarelli filed with the USPTO a Petition for Application Submitted Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.47(a) Where Joint Inventor Mr. Yih-Shung Lin Cannot Be Located After A Diligent Effort To Locate Him.

3) In a Decision Refusing Status Under 37 C.F.R. § 1.47(a) mailed August 13, 2003, the USPTO dismissed the Petition in paragraph (2), in part because of failure to establish that Mr. Lin cannot be located due to lack of diligence.

4) After receiving the Decision Refusing Status in paragraph (3), Mr. Santarelli instructed me to make a diligent effort to locate Mr. Lin. Therefore, my actions listed below are in furtherance of those taken by Ms. Mary L. Hiner as outlined in her Declaration included with the previously filed Petition in paragraph (2).

5) Mr. Yih-Shung Lin left ST before February 20, 2002.

6) Before February 20, 2002, the last-known residential address, place of employment, and cell-phone number that ST had for Mr. Yih-Shung Lin were as follows: #02-04, Horizon Tower East, 15 Leoni Hill Road, Singapore 0923; Tencor (located in Taiwan); and, 65-9677-7138. ST, however, did not have a mailing address for Tencor. ST then acquired the following email address and second cell-phone number for Mr. Lin: yih.shung.lin@kla-tencor.com, 886-911-238-648.

7) On November 4, 2003, I sent an email (Exhibit 1) to Mr. Lin at yih.shung.lin@kla-tencor.com.

8) On November 4, 2003, I received an email (Exhibit 2) stating that the email address in paragraph (7) was not recognized.

9) On November 13, 2003, I phoned 011 886-911-238-648 twice. Both times I got dead air. No dial tone, no ring, nothing.

10) On November 13, 2003, I phoned 011 65-9677-7138 twice. Both times I got the following message: "customer not available, try again later." Also, the phone service did not provide me an option to leave a voice message, so I was unable to leave a message.

11) On November 13, 2003, I searched the Singapore phone directory via the internet (Exhibit 3). There is no listing for a Yih-Shung Lin.

12) On November 13, 2003, I prepared and sent a package to Mr. Lin at his last known address, #02-04, Horizon Tower East, 15 Leoni Hill Road, Singapore 0923, via Airborne Express. (Exhibit 4) The package contained a copy of the reissue application and a reissue declaration for Mr. Lin's signature.

13) On November 13, 2003, I also prepared and sent a package to Mr. Alex Kalnitsky, Mr. Lin's coinventor. The package contained a copy of the reissue application, a reissue declaration for Mr. Kalnitsky's signature, and a letter (Exhibit 5) stating in part that we were unable to locate Mr. Lin. Mr. Kalnitsky subsequently signed and returned the reissue declaration, but did not provide us any information as to Mr. Lin's whereabouts.

14) On December 02, 2003, I phoned 011 65-9677-7138 again. I got the same message as in paragraph (10): "customer not available, try again later." Also, the phone service did not provide me an option to leave a voice message, so I was unable to leave a message.

Hello Mr. Lin. We are a law firm working with STMicroelectronics, Inc. on several of their patent applications. ST needs you to review a reissue application based on your U.S. Patent No. 5,986,330 which issued on November 16, 1999, and to execute a reissue declaration for that application. Can you please provide me with your mailing address so we may send this to you as soon as possible? Thank you in advance for your assistance with this matter.

Dear Mr. Kalnitsky:

Enclosed is a Reissue Declaration for your signature. This updated Declaration is identical to the Declaration you signed on February 25, 2002, with one exception. The prior Declaration you signed failed to include your co-inventor's, Mr. Yih-Shung Lin (who we are unable to locate), citizenship, so the Patent Office requires your signature on this completed Declaration. Copies of the issued patent and First Preliminary Amendment are enclosed for your reference when signing the Declaration. If you still agree with the statements made in the Reissue Declaration, please execute the Reissue Declaration where indicated.
